

Social-Emotional Learning Survey Parent Information

Dear DMPS Families,

Social-emotional learning (SEL) describes the mindsets, skills, attitudes, and feelings that help students succeed in school, career, and life. At its core, SEL focuses on students' fundamental needs for motivation, social connectedness, and self-regulation as prerequisites for learning. The 21st Century skills that make up SEL are an important part of a well-rounded education.

This fall, and again in the spring, your child will be asked to complete a brief social-emotional learning survey from Panorama Education. Panorama's Social-Emotional Learning Survey is designed for students to reflect on their school environment and experiences to help educators learn more about how to better support students' needs. To learn more about this survey please visit their website at www.panoramaed.com.

To view sample surveys, click on the links below or enter them in the browser of your computer. For students in grades K-2, the classroom teacher will provide responses for each student. Surveys for students in grades 3-12 are administered in two parts. Students will take both parts to complete their survey.
